

Elizabeth N. Johnson

317.502.6242 • enicolejohnson@hotmail.com

EDUCATION

Master in Library Science

2011

Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis

- Indiana's Librarians Leading in Diversity Fellow; Indiana State Library (Cohort 4) <http://in.gov/library/3703.htm>
- 21st Century Leadership Scholars Program Participant; Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis

BS in Political Science and African & African American Studies

2005

Indiana State University

- Ronald E. McNair Research Scholar

EXPERIENCE

Non-Academic

Community Branch Manager

2019-2021

The Indianapolis Public Library

- Conducted regular staff meetings and assessments to communicate effective management of the library branch, its programs, and its services provided to patrons and community members
- Developed and maintained appropriate partnerships with community leaders and stakeholders
- Collected, analyzed, and reported data on library use, services, trends, and resources

Volunteer Librarian and Clerical Staff

2011

Volunteers of America

- Created an online library catalog for the Theodora House Library collection
- Managed and continually developed the library's collection, while providing programs and services that promoted development for literacy and life-skills
- Assisted Human Resource Supervisor with routine office tasks

Academic

Social Sciences Librarian

2021-Present

Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis

- Serve as liaison to the Paul H. O'Neill School of Public and Environmental Affairs, the School of School of Health and Human Services Department of Tourism, Event, and Sport Management, and one of two liaisons to the Kelley School of Business
- Provide instruction and research consultations to students and information seekers
- Offer chat reference assistance to online users

Librarian

2017-2019

Purdue University Black Cultural Center

- Managed library's collection, and procured acquisitions for materials that promote cultural immersion and competence
- Trained and supervised team of student staff members for circulation and other library operations
- Served joint assignment with the Humanities Social Science, and Education Library at Purdue University
- Performed various tasks and assignments as a Black Cultural Center administrative staff member

Librarian and Adjunct Faculty 2012-2017
International Business College

- Managed library's collection and acquisitions
- Provided research, writing, and academic success instruction during new student orientation
- Administered and oversaw acquisitions of textbooks and other course materials for the student body per academic term
- Served as instructor for the institution's business communications course

Reference Librarian 2011-2012
Ivy Tech Community College

- Served as temporary relief to the Assistant Director
- Offered user and reference services to students, faculty, staff, and the general public
- Provided library and bibliographic instruction to students as requested by faculty

PROFESSIONAL ENGAGEMENT

IPS Racial Equity Training 2021
Racial Equity Institute and Indiana State Library

Indiana Black Librarians Network 2020-2021

African American History Committee 2020-2021
The Indianapolis Public Library

Staff Association 2021
The Indianapolis Public Library

IMPACT – Faculty Learning Community Support Team 2018-2019
Purdue University

Black Caucus of Faculty and Staff 2018-2019
Purdue University

Operation Management Group 2018-2019
Purdue Libraries

PROJECTS

Celebration of Black Excellence Program 2019
Purdue Black Cultural Center

- Recognized and honored the accomplishments of Purdue's black faculty and staff for their professional and personal achievements

Purdue Black Cultural Center Archives Project 2017-2019
Purdue Black Cultural Center

- Partnered with Digital Archivist Neal Harmeyer to collect and evaluate artifacts to include in a commemorative collection of digitally archived materials
- Provided guidance and supervision to student staff assisting with the project

BCC's 50th Anniversary Project Collaboration 2017-2018

Purdue Black Cultural Center

INSTRUCTION EXPERIENCE

Library Skills Instruction Seminar—Academic Boot Camp 2018-2019

Purdue Black Cultural Center Library

- Provided presentation focusing on Information Literacy and competency standards within higher education as defined by the American Library Association

Instructor; Business Communications 2012-2017

International Business College

- Provided students with review and improvement of basic grammar and writing skills used in a professional setting
- Encouraged development of appropriate methods for professional communication

Instructor; College 101 Student Success Seminar 2015-2017

International Business College

- Presented five-week seminar series that offers students strategies for academic success during their entry academic term
- Extended additional resources to support the learning process outside of class
- Arranged for personal assistance with organization and time management

Library Instruction 2012-2017

International Business College

- Research and Writing Seminar
- Study Skills Development Seminar
- Library Orientation

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

Johnson, E.N., Littlefield, Marci. (2004, July). Analyzing the Attitudes of Black College Students and their Effect on the Decline of Marriage in the African American Community, McNair Summer Research Conference, Indiana State University.

Johnson, E.N., Littlefield, Marci. (2005, July). Evaluating Popular Representations of Black Families in the Media and their Effects on the Structure of Black Marriages and Families, McNair Summer Research Conference, Indiana State University.

Johnson, E.N. (2011, June). One Book at a Time... The Theodora House Library Project, 21st Century Leadership Skills Meeting, American Library Association Annual Conference, New Orleans, LA.

REFERENCES

Andrea Copeland, Ph. D.
Chair and Program Director, Library and Information Science
Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis
317.274.0114, ajapzon@iupui.edu

Judy Thames, Director of Education
International Business College
317.813.2301, jthames@ibcindianapolis.edu

Regina Bouley Sweeten, Archives and Special Collections Librarian
Eastern New Mexico University
575.562.2679, regina.bouleysweeten@enmu.edu

Danicia Malone, Programs and Facilities Manager
Purdue Black Cultural Center
765.494.3094, dmmalone@purdue.edu